Albariño Paco & Lola, Rias Baixas, Spain

$18

bottle $58

Galicia is known for hot, humid weather and world-class seafood... just like Santa Teresa! Albariño is Galicia's flagship white and it is a perfect match to summer and seafood. Dare to try this bright, zesty and crisp wine option.

2013 Sauternes Château Roumieu, Haut Barsac, France

half bottle $45

There is a very good reason why the seducing white dessert wines from this sub region of Bordeaux are often termed "liquid gold". Perfect melding of sweetness and freshness. Great with a cheese platter, light desserts with fruit and even spicy flavors. Muscadelle, Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc.

BOTTLES

Sauvignon Blanc Matetic EQ Coastal, Casablanca, Chile

$58

Crisp and fresh. A classic coastal white, from a vineyard planted in 1997 about five miles from the Pacific. BIODYNAMIC FARMING

Riesling Gustave Lorentz, Alsace, France $60

Dry and mineral white that pairs very well with fish, sushi and spice flavors.

ORGANIC CERTIFIED

Chianti Classico Dievole “La Vendemmia”, Vagliagli, Italy
$75

A smooth, harmonious and elegant red. Great example of the crafty Chianti winemaking style: casual and satisfying every time.

Malbec Salentein Primus, Valle de Uco, Mendoza, Arg.
$150

Intense, concentrated and elegant. 18 Months in French Oak. A silky heavyweight red from one Malbec's top vineyards in Mendoza
